EVENTS

February 16

Distribution of Grooming Kits

With the help of TRF's dedicated volunteers, the team lovingly assembled over 80 of the grooming kits generously donated by Team Pukers last December. The volunteers then travelled to nearby patients to distribute the kits and pray for them, while the patient care team also brought the packages on their regular home visits. 48 patients received grooming kits in the month of February, with the rest to be distributed in the coming months.

February 28

ABSNet Meeting with NCR-based SWDAs

Representatives from The Ruth Foundation attended the regular Area-Based Standards Network (or ABSNet) meeting last February 28 alongside other Social Welfare Development Agencies (SWDAs). As newly registered 1st time attendees, TRF's president/CEO Dr. Mae Corvera gave a short introduction about what TRF does. During the reevaluation of officers, Dr. Corvera was also appointed as one of the officer representatives for the "older persons" sector.

LOVE IS A VERB.

Every February, we celebrate expressions of love. Young lovers trade flowers and gifts. Husband and wife share special dinners together. The list goes on.

But while we enjoy receiving love this month, let us remember that love is also something to give away.

Love is sharing the chocolates you receive. Love is helping your neighbor cross the street. Love is calling your mother and father to catch up with them.

Love is a choice. Love is putting your child first before your work. Love is giving time to volunteer. Love is making sacrifices.

You cannot sit back and expect the world to serve love to you. Instead, serve the world with love.

How have you loved today?

Hopefull Issue 4 is Almost Here!

It's a very short wait left. Our magazine editorial team has been hard at work to finish Hopefull's fourth issue, and this time it's all about advocacy! Our next issue will feature interviews with various social entrepreneurs and servant-hearted leaders, inspirational articles on combating negativity, and more.

What's even better is this month's issue comes along with a 2017 calendar. While the calendar features some of the services the hardworking TRF team delivers to the community, we hope it inspires you to find something of your own to fight for. We hope you seek to live the best life possible.

Stay tuned to ruth.ph/hopefull for updates!
